15 (d) NATIONAL STRATEGY FOR THE GLOBAL INFOR-
16 MATION DOMAIN.—

17 (1) DEVELOPMENT OF NATIONAL STRATEGY.—
18 The primary goal of the Working Group is to de-
19 velop a national strategy for the global information
20 domain which shall include, at a minimum the fol-
21 lowing:

22 (A) A prioritization of the global informa-
23 tion domain as an arena for international com-
24 petition vital to the national security of the 25 United States.

- 1 (B) A description of how adversarial state
2 and non-state actors are attempting to define 3 and control the global information domain in 4 order to achieve the goals of shaping global 5 opinion and achieving strategic advantage.
- 6 (C) A description of the critical role of ar-
7 tificial intelligence-enabled malign information
8 in the efforts of adversarial state and non-state
9 actors to achieve the goals described in sub-
10 paragraph (B).
- 11 (D) An identification of and prioritization
12 of actions to defend, counter, and compete
13 against malign information operations as a na-
14 tional security threat.
- 15 (E) As necessary, recommendations for 16 any update to critical infrastructure designa-
17 tions identified by Presidential Policy Directive
18 21 and a recommendation for the relevant de-
19 partments and agencies to update sector-spe-
20 cific plans to reflect emerging technologies.
- 21 (F) A recommendation for organizational 22 structures for national security agencies to 23 counter and compete against the threat.
